Dear Shirley,

Honey, here you are a graduating senior, leaving us to go out into the big wide world. But knowing you, Shirley, you'll make it 1000%. Shirley, you are a wonderful friend & you mean an awful lot to me - we've had our disagreements, but then, who doesn't? Yours truly & I know you'll go far. Best of luck to the both of you - I really think you two are wonderful together & I know you'll have a long happy life together. Love

Shirley,
Hell I guess school is just about over with and we're about ready to leave good old Hays Hi. But I guess we had just about as good a time as anybody. Best of luck to a swell girl.
Bill

Dear Shirley,
Gosh honey, next year school will be dull without you. You sure have been a big help to me. Every time I was down in the dumps you could say such sweet things & I'd forget all my troubles. I hope you adverising. big success in that line. Don't ever forget all the good times we have had. I hope there are many more I hope someday I can attend the wedding of the cutest couple. Best of luck. Shirley-Ann is

Dear Shirley,

a prettier girl I'll never meet nor one half as sweet.
Remember all the fun we've had this year and I hope a friendship will continue to be dear.
Haven't all our high school been fun and especially this one.
I hope you like this poem of this dedication I composed while standing in the hall.

FOREWARD

Another Dream Fulfilled!

The seniors of 1950 have completed the last lap of their journey through high school. Since entering the doors of Hays High, many dreams have been fulfilled—a football team with a nearly perfect record, a basketball team that kept the fans in tense excitement; the all school play, "Smilin' Through," the long-awaited junior-senior prom, and the many other hopes, wishes, and dreams throughout high school days.

The staff has capitalized on this idea—Dreams Fulfilled—around which to compile the 1950 Indian Call.

Dreamy Staff

We, the staff of the 1950 INDIAN CALL have built our dream around the hope of bringing the memories of the school year into this yearbook. The INDIAN CALL is published annually by volunteer members of the junior and senior classes. The staff of '50 was composed of 13 seniors, 3 juniors and Alta Behrens, business education teacher, as advisor.

Dedication

To Superintendent Clyde U. Phillips, the staff of '50 dedicates this Indian Call.

As director of dreams since 1931, Mr. Phillips has worked and planned for the progress of Hays schools while teachers and pupils have come and gone. On December 13, 1939, the dream of many efforts, of much work, and of a great deal of planning came true when the new addition of Hays High was dedicated.

Mr. Phillips' enthusiasm for the promotion of good clean sports has placed him high in the opinions of athletes and sports fans. His willingness to help in just little things as awarding reading certificates, crowning the Valentine royalties, and writing Christmas greetings in artistic penmanship in the classrooms has won him a place in the hearts of all students of Hays High.

Mr. Phillips' work is not complete. Under his guiding hand Hays High will continue to grow in size, in valuation, and in education.

Board of Education

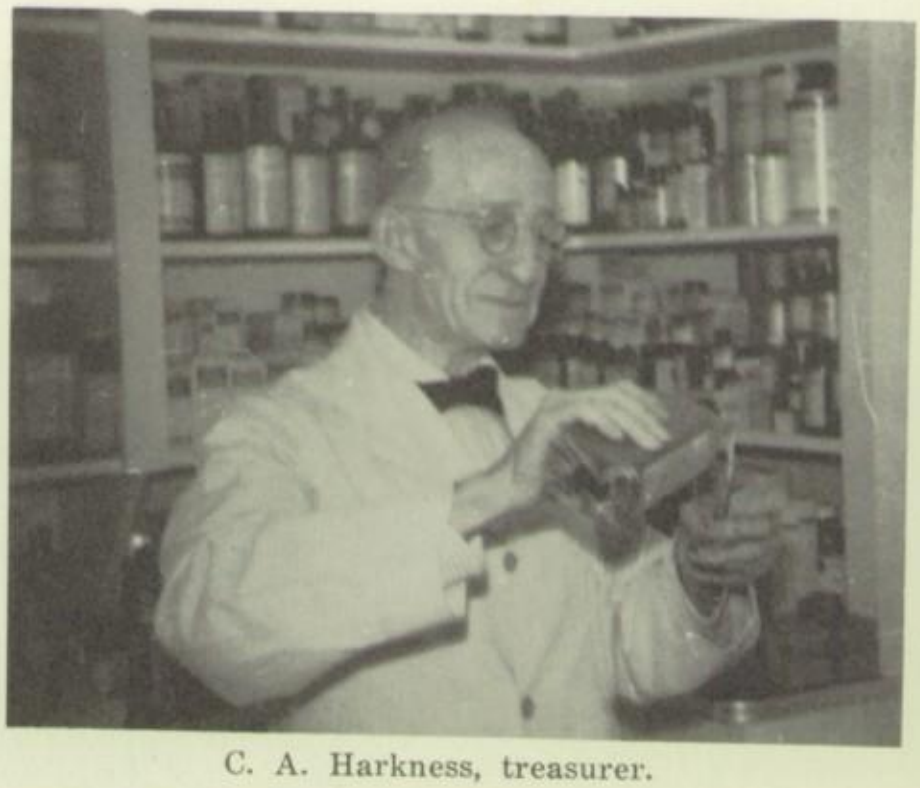
First row—Paul Ward, William Toepfer, president; E. J. Dreiling. Second row—Clyde U. Phillips, clerk; Charlie Mann, D. B. Simpson, vice-president; Jack Drees.

With the interests of more than 500 students in mind, this group of busy Hays businessmen, who served on the board of education, met the first Monday of each month to take care of the many problems in operating a school system. This year, the board worked on building improvements. They received no pay for their services. Although Mr. C. A. Harkness, treasurer, is not an official member of the board, he has held this elective office for many years.



C. A. Harkness, treasurer.

Autumn

Clyde U. Phillips, A. M.
Superintendent

Shirley, we shall certainly miss you around Hays High. Clyde U. Phillips

Superintendent Clyde U. Phillips, who for nineteen years has held the responsible position of supervising the Hays High School, has won the respect and friendship of all the students and teachers under his supervision.

Active in many organizations is Mr. Phillips. At present he is a member of Rotary, Knife and Fork Club, and the Country Club. This year he was president of the Hays Civic Music Association, and president of the West Central Kansas League.

Mr. Phillips served as president of Kansas State Teachers Association in 1944-1945 and president of Kansas Educators Club in 1930. He is a member of the K. S. T. A. Educational Planning Commission and a member of the Resolutions Committee of N. E. A.

Even though Mr. Phillips is a very busy man, he still finds time from his weighted desk to attend all school functions at Hays High and thus keep in touch with the youth of today.

For seven years, Clyde W. Rothgeb has held the position of principal of the Hays Junior-Senior High School. Quiet and friendly Mr. Rothgeb is never too busy to listen to the problems of the students. He believes deeply in the traditions upon which Hays High has built its foundation. Mr. Rothgeb was president of Kansas Administrators Club in 1946 and president of Kansas Association of Secondary School Principals in 1948. He is president of the Hays Lions Club this year.

Jolly A. K. Massey has served faithfully as principal of the Junior High School for 19 years. He is a favorite among the students and many of the alumni. Mr. Massey is a member of Rotary and has been supervisor of the play grounds for eight years. He is also director of Visual Education of both junior and senior high school.

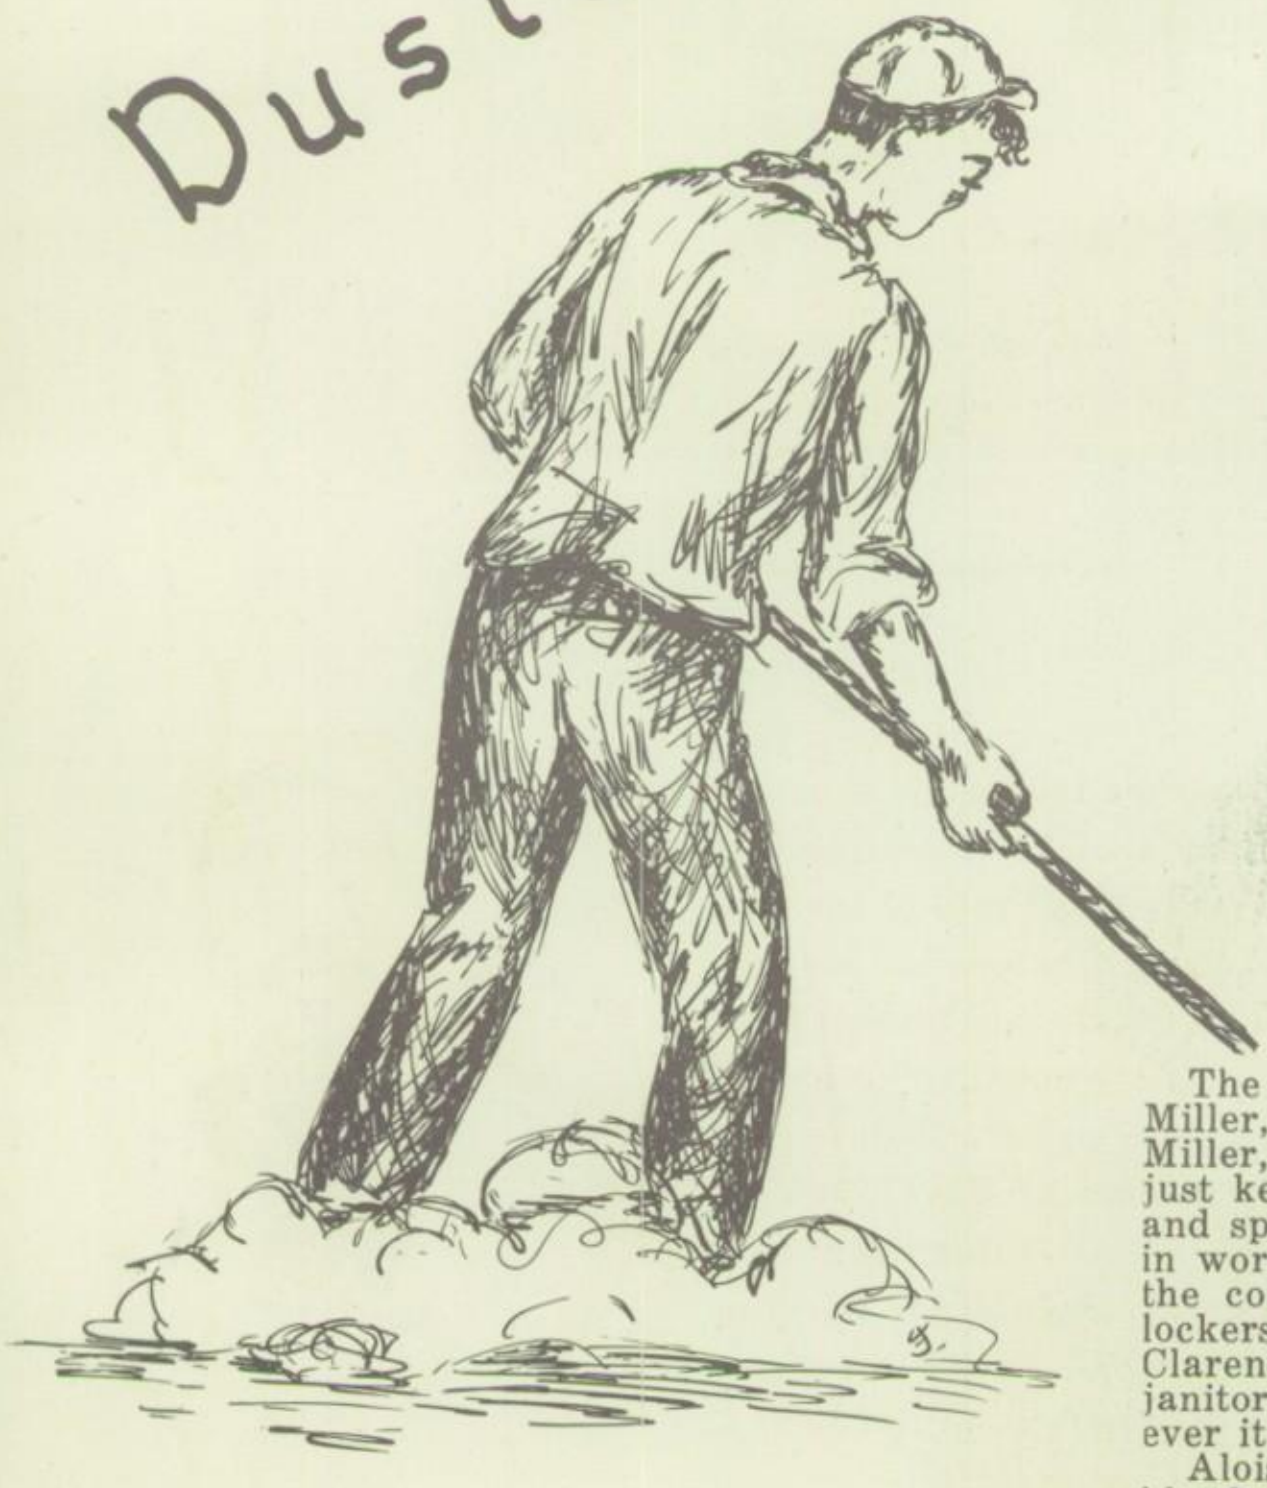
Clarence Miller

Alex Doerfler



The janitors of Hays High, Alois Miller, Alex Doerfler, and Clarence Miller, have much more to do than just keep the halls and rooms spic and span. They keep the fountains in working order, clean up around the coke machines, open stubborn lockers and a thousand other things. Clarence, in addition to being night janitor, drives the school bus whenever it is in use.

Alois, head janitor, is responsible for seeing that janitorial supplies for the grade schools as well as the High school are ordered and stored.

Dream Girl

Jacqueline Schmutz

Another dream was fulfilled for Jacqueline Schmutz as she was crowned 1950 Indian Call Princess. She was elected as the favorite senior by popular vote of the subscribers on January 11 and crowned before the student body on May 11, 1950. "Jackie," as she has always been known by all in Hays High, was very outstanding in music. In 1949 she was sponsored in the district music contest by the Federated Women's Clubs of Hays.

"Jackie" did an excellent job as feature editor on the Guidon staff in her senior year. She plans to go on in education, and the Indian Call staff of '50 sincerely hopes that many more of her dreams will be fulfilled.

Mac McKee's Indians of '49 had a glorious season. The team had a tough schedule of nine games. A new league was set up this year which consisted of Russell, Great Bend, Larned, Pratt, Stafford, Dodge City and Hays High. It was known as the West Central Kansas League.

The Indians took a quick start by edging a powerful Minneapolis team 13-7. Then they were well on their way by defeating a stubborn Great Bend eleven, 13-0. After defeating Larned 20-7 and Pratt 26-13 in Hays, the Indians took to the road to face a tough Dodge City team. Although it was a chilly night and a close game it was well worth the trip because the Braves came out on top 9-6. However, it appeared as if Dodge City started the Indians on a two-game slow up. Hays traveled to Ellis to fight off a scraping Ellis team 13-0. Then for two games, the Indians went on a rampage. They beat a strong Russell squad 19-0; then ran over the Cadets 38-14. Hays High was tied for first place in the league with Stafford. Each team was undefeated and only one game left to be played by the Indians. Hays went to Stafford hoping to win but got knocked down by an alert team 6-21. The Redmen ended the season in second place while Stafford won the W. C. K. L.

Junior Scalpers

For a good beginning, the Hays High B team rolled over Ellis 19-0. The Papooses were then handed a three game losing streak: a 0-7 defeat from Great Bend; a 0-13 defeat from the Cadets; and a 0-20 loss from Russell. The B team played the Cadets a second time winning by a mere 7-6 score.

Smokey Ark Champs

For the first time in Hays High, a junior high league was formed. Several boys reported for play in the fall. This league, known as "The Smokey Ark," was composed of four teams: Great Bend, Russell, Hoisington, and Hays High. The Junior Indians added another trophy to the collection by defeating Great Bend, 13 to 0; Russell, 45 to 0; Hoisington, 47 to 0; and added an outside victory from LaCrosse, 14 to 12.

Junior High: First row—B. Wheeler, L. Herrman, D. Finney, C. Stecklein, J. D. Williams, D. Kobler, C. Wells, E. Milton, E. Kirkbride, S. Storment, J. Casper, B. Rhoades. Second row—J. Nelson, L. Schnatterly, B. Wheeler, D. Harris, G. Giebler, V. Haas, D. Wing, M. Leiker, D. Simpson, M. Page, B. Urban, A. Gosser, K. Cook, W. Groff. Third row—D. Johnson, B. Rupp, E. Klaus, A. Weigel, I. Leiker, D. Munsell, E. Rogers, M. Wolfe, J. Sipe, coach, J. Ward, A. Neylon, D. Smith, L. Welch, E. Gross, G. Cobb, P. Steele.

Queen for a Day

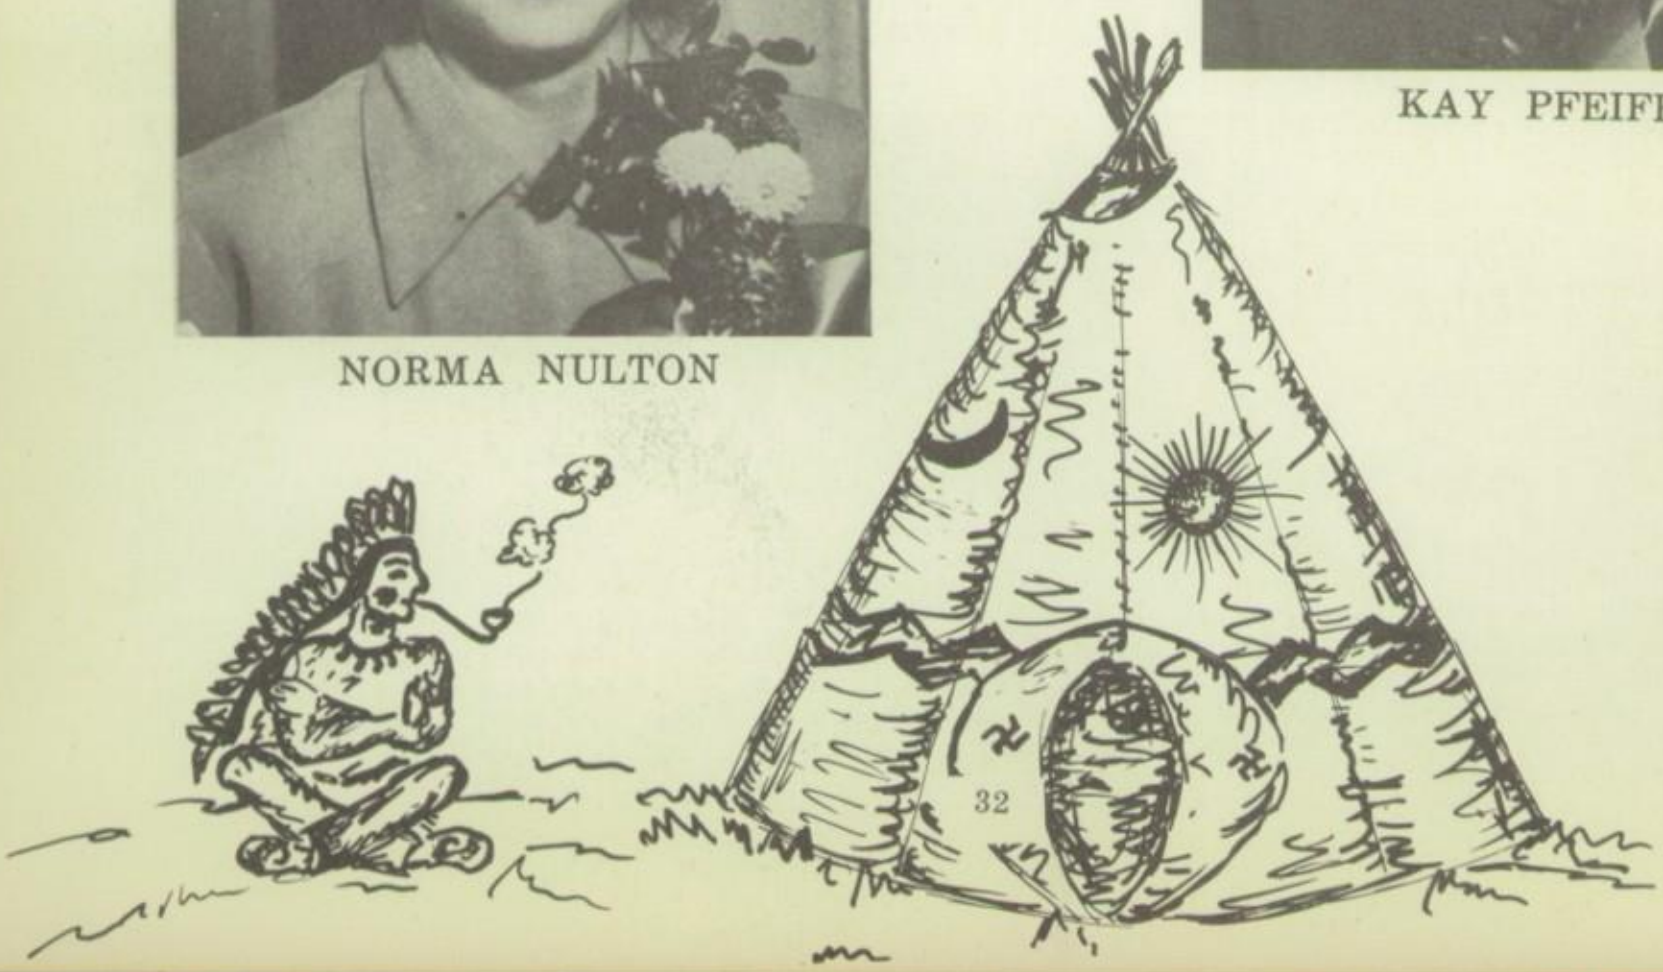
LORENE ROHR

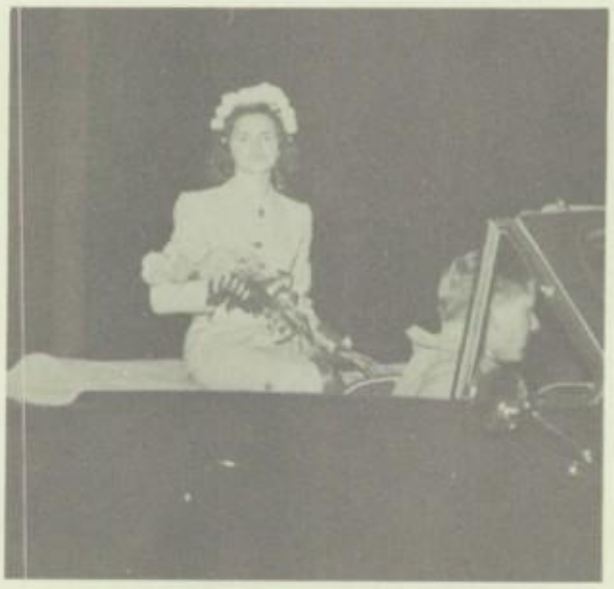
Hays High's fifth annual homecoming game was played on November 2 at Lewis field. The eventful day was started with a pep assembly in which the Hays Indians won Miss Victory and tamed the Russell Bronco. At seven o'clock, the student body turned out for a pep rally in front of the school building; and then the band escorted the queen's car through the business section of Hays to the stadium. At the half time, the queen was crowned. The letters QUEEN were formed by the band in her honor. The jubilant spirit of the Hays supporters was increased by the victory of the game, 19-0. Dancing in the gym at the homecoming dance completed a day which will be a cherished memory for many.

KAY PFEIFER

NORMA NULTON



Big Chief and Miss Victory—Jerry Ann Dunivan and Bud Dalton have tamed the bronco for the game.



Smile after crowning— Lorene Rohr, after having been crowned by C. A. Hubbard, is driven off the field by Bob Maupin.

Cheers for the team—Student body cheers the team on to victory in the pep assembly before the game.

Dream and dance—The homecoming dance climaxed a day to be long remembered.

Serious and smiling—Kay Pfeifer and Norma Nulton escorted by Jack Samples and Bob Geist enter the field for the crowning.

Marching Down the Milky Way

MARCHING BAND

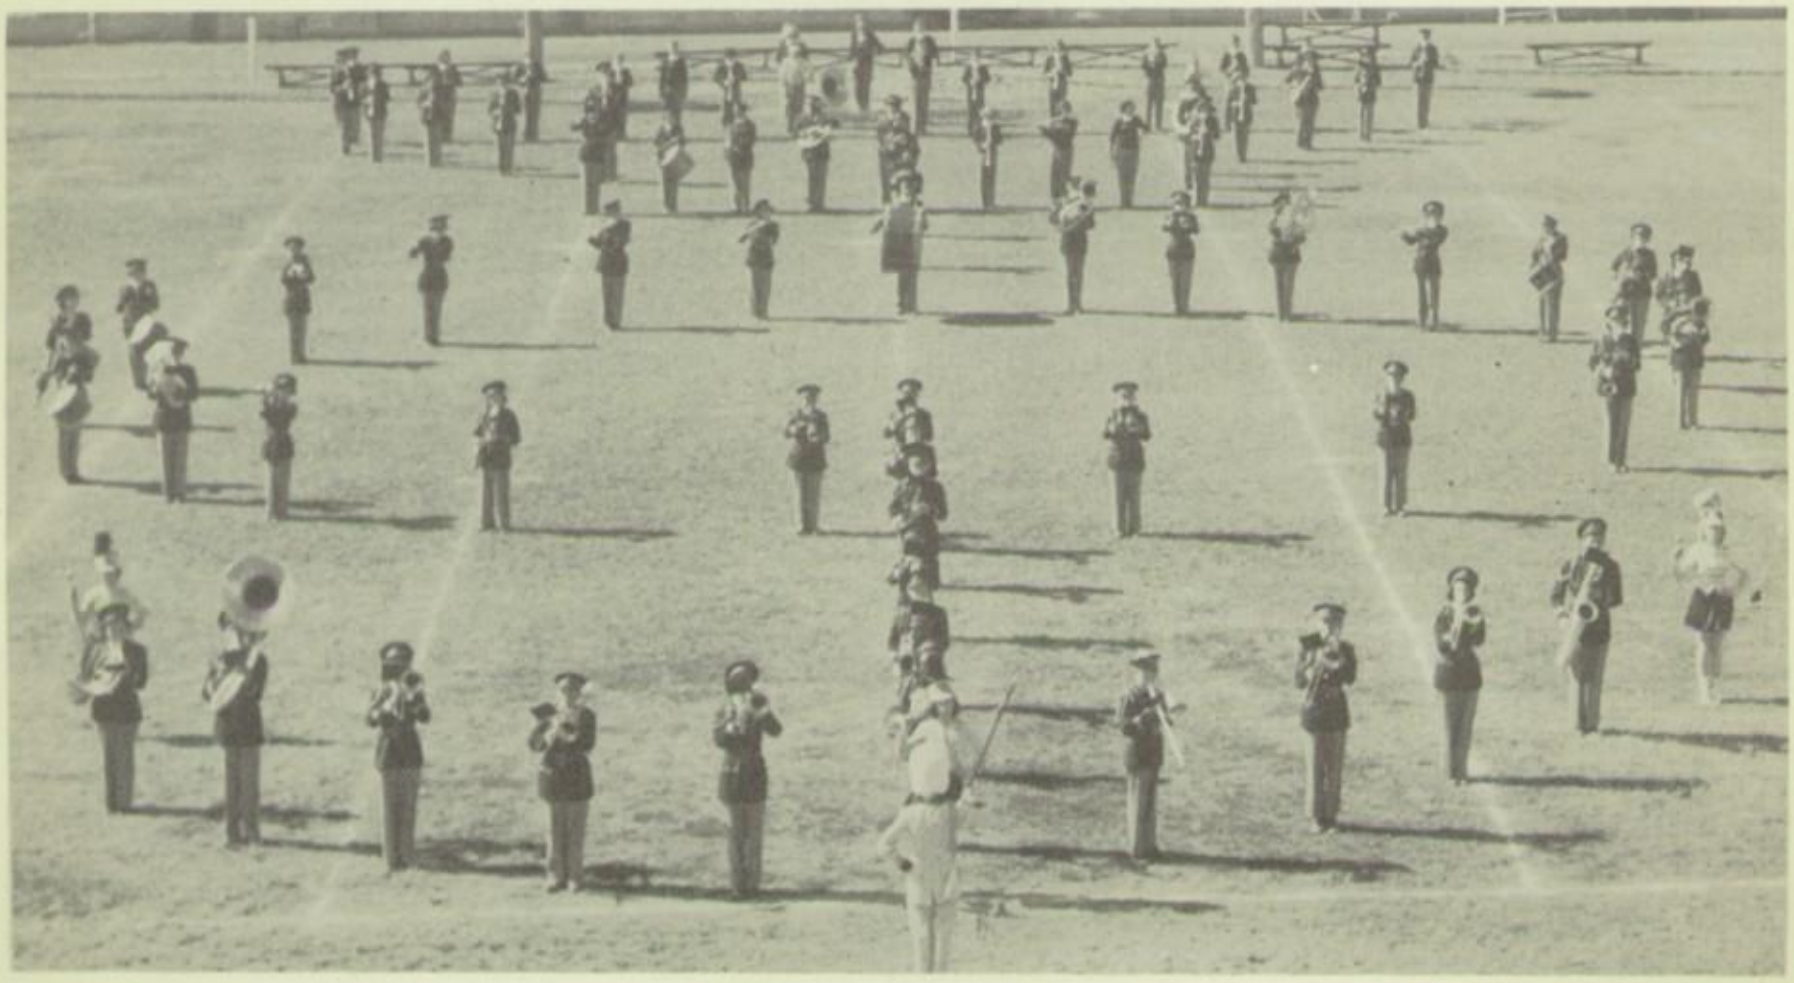
On Armistice Day, the Marching Band completed its season. Hours of marching on Shively Field, preparing half-time band shows were finally over. The band made much progress in band pagentry this fall.

The following band shows were presented throughout the season: FOUR HOLIDAYS, SALUTE TO THE INDIANS, THE HISTORY OF THE MARINE CORPS, HOMECOMING, and WHAT MAKES ARMISTICE DAY? The above picture represents the Marine Corps Insignia, taken during the show, HISTORY OF THE MARINE CORPS.

Other activities of the band were: a trip to Manhattan to perform at the Kansas State-Fort Hays State game, a performance with the college band at the Fort Hays State-Southwestern game, participation in the Merci Train Parade on Armistice Day.

The A band which was made up of sixty members was under the direction of Mr. George Johnson with Jeanne Carter as Drum Major. The B band was under the direction of Miss Marjorie Fairchild with Joella Harrison as Drum Major.



A Band—Trombones—K. Carley, J. Shuler, C. Law, L. Welch, D. DeLong, D. Pratt. Cornets—D. Johnson, J. Neff, G. Brooks, E. Gill, A. Neylon, G. Giebler, L. Herrman, D. McArthur, R. Neal, R. Baker, K. Cornets—D. Imache, J. Maska, J. Feiden, D. Edwards, W. Lasater. Trombone—D. Finney.

Pep Club

The industrious members worked faithfully on floats which took first and third place in the Armistice Day parade.

Creating spirit and good sportsmanship was the duty of the pep club. This was the largest organization in school and its pep and spirit was a necessity at all of the games.

At every game there was a section full of loyal pep club members faithfully cheering the team.

Pep assemblies were planned by the pep club and given on days of games.

Tribal Terror's Prepare

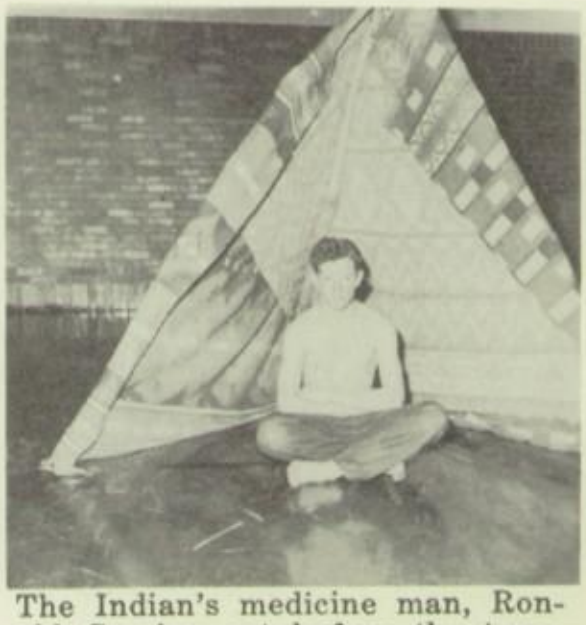
Dorene Powers, the west wind; Dolores Payne, the north wind; Charlotte Pfeifer, the east wind; Lorene Rohr, the south wind, portrayed the four winds in their annual dance to bring good luck.



The Indian's medicine man, Ronald Carrier, sat before the tepee ready to rise and spread the alarm.

The penetrating beat of the tom toms reaching out in the semi-darkened gym created the atmosphere for Hays High's annual pow wow. The narrator, Shirley Johnson, began the story of chief "Mac" McKee and his warriors in camp on Big Creek before the battle with the Cadets. All the elements were called upon for their magic power and the medicine men drove all remaining evil spirits away. At the cry, "Here come the Cadets" all the braves sprang to their feet to prepare for the battle.

Pipe Dreamers

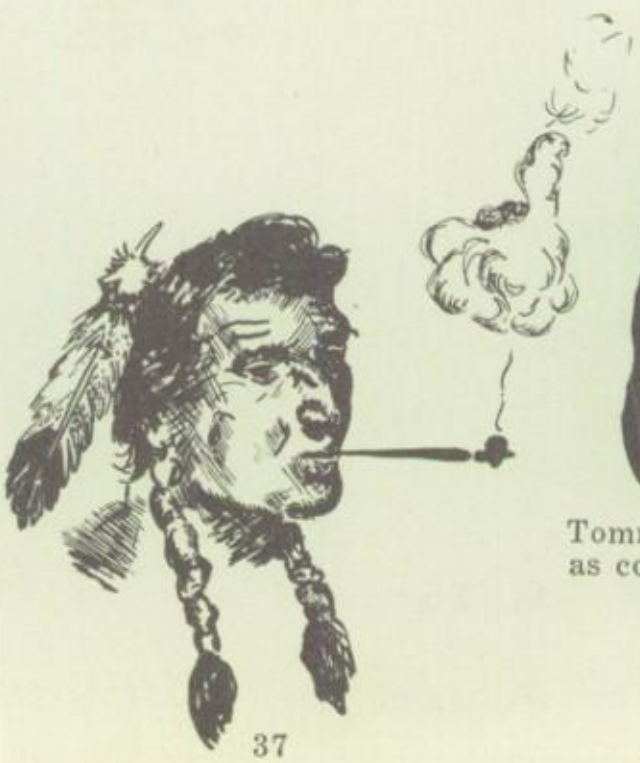
Billie Bertram and C. A. Hubbard scaned references.

Anna Lu McFarlin and Marilyn Kirtland held a conference preceding a debate.

Roberta Jacobs and Shirley Laubengayer conferred over a point.

The Hays debate squad had a memorable year in '50. They attended three invitational tourneys and the district contest. The squad tied for second place in the district and missed the chance of going to the state tourney by 2 points.

Mary Ellen Mermis stressed a point as Margot Lindner prepared her rebuttal.



Tommy Kreuger introduced a topic as colleague Joy Brewer sat by.

The Guidon

The Guidon Staff: Miss Gladys Kraus, sponsor, Shirley Johnson, Joy Brewer, Jeannine Scoby, Jacquelyn Schmutz.

Keeping students and parents informed of the activities around school and providing for the expression of student opinion are the responsibilities of Miss Gladys Kraus. The paper is a bi-monthly publication.

From morning till night the staff members may be seen hurrying around school gathering up the latest in news, pictures and ads and finishing last minute details before deadline.

In 1949 The Guidon received the highest award from Quill and Scroll of which it is a member. It also rated second in the National Scholastic Press Association.

Helping the journalism class is the journalism club. They write news and feature stories and aspire to positions on the staff.

Rhythmic Rappells

At pep assemblies, home games, and some of the out-of-town games, the Pep Band could be found boosting the basketball team to victory. Members not only gave time at games but devoted many hours before school and at night in long practice sessions to make a good organization.

Checkboys — James Ruder and Keith Creighton care for basketball uniforms.

Even though the Indians had seven losses during the season, they still showed plenty of fight. Hays won their first game in the regional tournament from Hill City. The second game the Redmen trounced Russell and edged by Larned in the finals. The Indians went to the state tournament in Salina taking Garnett in the first game but was edged out by Olathe in the second round. The Indians added two first-place trophies this season to Hays High's collection—Lyons invitational tournament and the regional class A tournament held in Sheridan coliseum.

Bud House accepted the first place regional tournament trophy for the team from Dr. M. C. Cunningham.

H Club

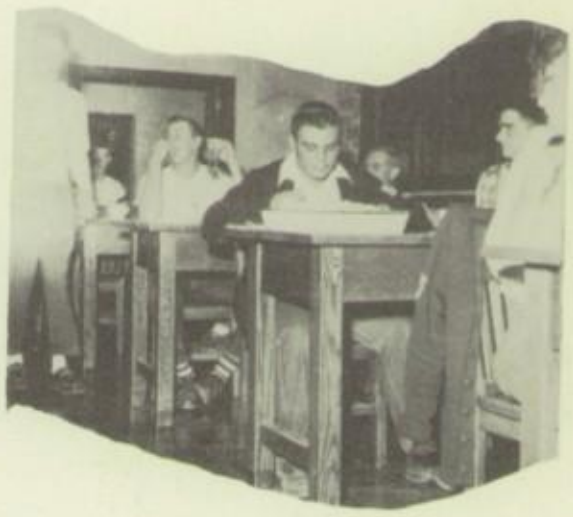
Don Korbe, president; Fritts Felten, treasurer; Tony Pfeifer, vice-president; Joe Staab, secretary.

Lettering in football, basketball and track was the first requirement for members of the H-Club. This year they sponsored the new coke machine.

Initiation, held at the end of the athletic season, was eagerly awaited by the students and members. The club was under the leadership of Elmer Johnson, Dennis McKee and Arthur Leas.

Not an H-club member who wasn't interested in eating could be found at chili time.



Fingers were made before forks and pans before plates.

TRAFFIC SQUAD

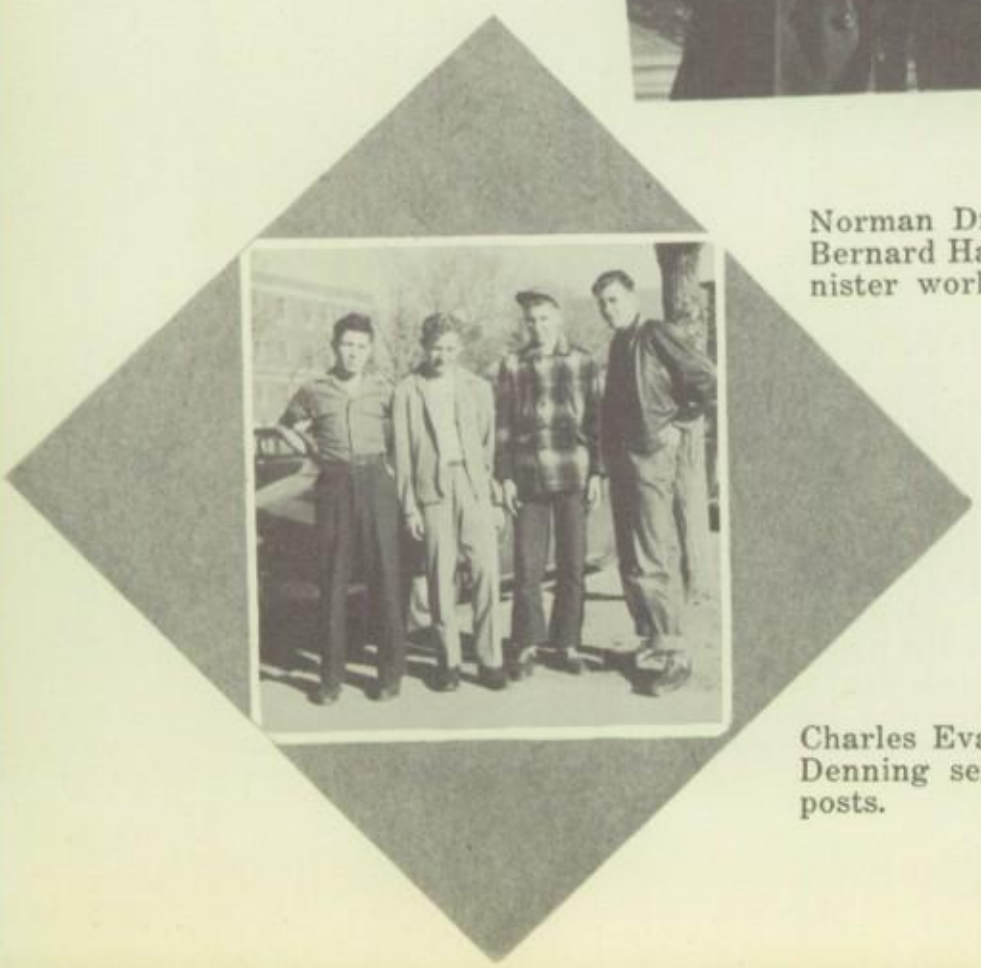
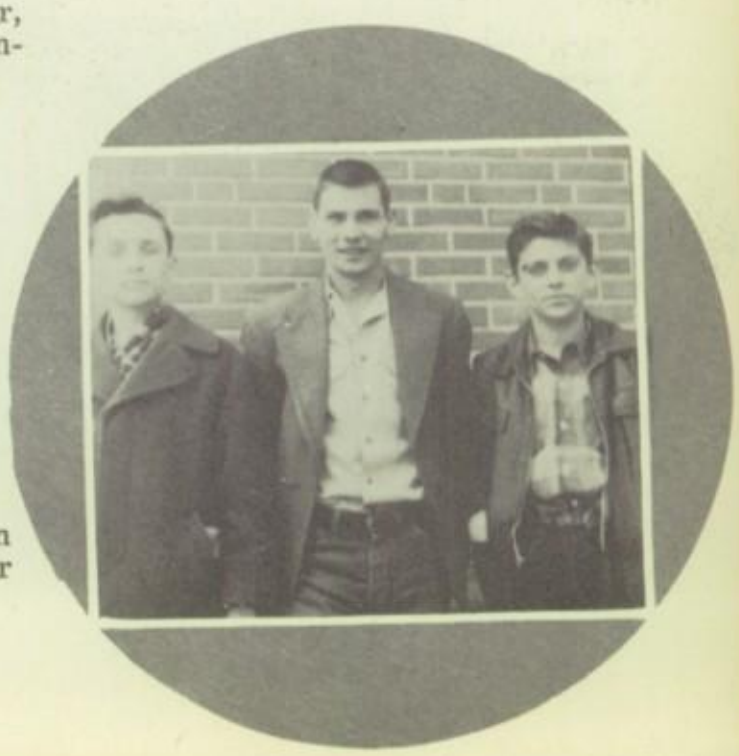
Effectively and efficiently, the seventeen boys on the traffic squad watched their posts and thus upheld the high safety goals of Hays High School.

These boys left school for their position five minutes before dismissal at noon and after school to help prevent accidents. The squad was under the direction of Art Leas, physical education instructor.

Marvin Straily and Kenneth Carley assistant captains.



Norman Dreiling, Ronald Carrier, Bernard Hammersmith, Terry Bannister worked faithfully.



Charles Evans, Rudy Pfeifer, Don Denning served willingly at their posts.

The student council is the governing body of the senior high school. They were hosts to a student council conference in the fall. At their meetings the council acted upon suggestions that were put in the beef box by the students.

President of the student council was Eddie Madden elected by popular vote of the senior high school body. First vice-president was Kenneth Reed and second vice-president Joy Brewer. Clyde W. Rothgeb was sponsor.

Behind the Scenes

Where's the cafeteria! The lunch room was moved from a classroom to the south balcony of the gym.

Keith Hansen dressed in his band uniform ready for his trip to Stafford.

Dolores Laizure, freshman, asserts her privilege of contacting the student council through the use of the beef box.

Students prepared the cars for homecoming

Carl Wells selected a "picker upper" at the Doctor Pepper machine after a day's work.

Rosemary Keberlein, Bonnie Mayhew, Jane Gagelman carry their notebooks with them.

Christmas

The story of the first Christmas was read from the Bible. Narrator, Shirley Johnson told the story which was pantomined on the stage. The shepherds were informed by the heavenly host of the birth of the Christ. Soloist Marvin Straily added to the scene by singing "While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks by Night." These simple folk then journeyed to His birth place to exalt Him and His mother, Mary. "O Holy Night" was sung by Jacqueline Schmutz. Wise men came from afar bringing rare gifts to be presented to the new born king.

The last scene was that of three angels posed before the cathedral windows inspiring peace among men.

The prologue — Kenneth Reed reads the Christmas story from the Bible before the enactment of the pageant.

The Nativity: Shepherds—Jack Samples, C. A. Hubbard, Edward Karlin, Keith Hansen, Kenneth Carley. Joseph—Bob Maupin. Mary—Eleanor Gill. Three Angels—Donna Brull, Joy Brewer, Dolores Payne. Wise men—Don Korbe, Bud Dalton, Edward Burgardt.

Stars

The annual Christmas pageant was presented for the twenty-fourth time, Dec. 21, 1949 in the Hays High recital hall. The pageant, which was presented in four scenes, was enriched this year by new robes for the wise men, Mary, Joseph, and the shepherds. Electric candles for the choir and new wrought iron candelabra were also added.

The Angel Choir—Nancy Sigrist, Connie Scoby, Ann Smith, Donna Brull, Joy Brewer, Dolores Payne, Janice Shuler, Melba Befort, Billie Bertram, Dolores Denning.

The Marching Choir: tenors—Clair Law, Cap Middlekauff, Rudy Pfeifer, Darrell Cobb, Bob Smith. Basses—Lewis Fitzhugh, Roland Staab, Tony Pfeifer, Kenard Clark, Marvin Straily. The banquet was held in a sunken rose garden, a royal blue sky with stars and a huge yellow moon shining above.

Sweethearts of

The king and queen, Jeanne Carter and Eddie Madden, receive congratulations from the crowd.

The annual valentine dance, Feb. 11, will hold a place in many memories. The most memorable part of the evening was when Supt. Clyde U. Phillips crowned Jeanne Carter and Eddie Madden queen and king of hearts. Under a canopy of red and white, the dance truly was an event to be dreamed about in years to come.

Swing and sway the valentine way.

JUNIOR INDIAN MAIDENS

An active organization in junior high was the Junior Indian Maidens. These girls sang Christmas carols and gave gifts to the patients in the hospitals at Christmas time. During Valentine week they had a secret heart sister to whom they sent a little gift each day; at the end of the week they had a party revealing the identity of their sister. The club is under the leadership of Mrs. Ruth Harris, Miss Blanche Bloxom and Miss Gladys Kraus.

I See In Your Future——

Kathryn Reed

Quiet, dependable Kathryn Reed was chosen the D. A. R. best citizen of the class of '50 by the senior girls and the faculty. Kathryn was very active in the music department. She played in the orchestra and was drum majorette for the band. The Indian Call staff claimed her as organizations editor and she held the position of news editor on The Guidon staff.

Kay Pfeifer was chosen by the senior girls to attend the leadership day held in Lawrence under the sponsorship of the Associated Women Students of the University of Kansas. This was the first year that Hays High has been asked to take part in this event. This year Kay was co-editor of the Indian Call, feature editor for The Guidon and president of the pep club. The purpose of high school leadership day was to acquaint the girls with responsibilities of University leadership and activities on college campuses.

Kay Pfeifer

Jacqueline Schmutz

Energetic Jacqueline Schmutz received the A. A. U. W. award as the outstanding senior girl in the class of '50. She spent a great deal of her time in the music department. She played the tympani in the orchestra and lent her lovely soprano voice to many vocal music groups. Being editor of the Guidon, president of Thespians and secretary of the first semester student council were a few more jobs which she fulfilled.

Black Magic

Kenny Reed and Bud House.

These two friendly "dreamers" were chosen for the honor of friendliest students in the sixth consecutive election sponsored by "The Guidon." Because of their quick, easy grins and consideration of others "Bud" and "Kenny" were selected from the student body to represent the class of '50 in years to come as the friendliest of all.

Future Stars

"Listen—How would you like to go to Joan's party with a man?"

"Oh, I'm so glad you're home dear! What happened? How did you get out of jail?"

"The Uncertain Age," a comedy by Hilda Manning, is brimful of the problems, the terribly important "crises," and the laughter of youth. Glory, as the appealing heroine, is an average American girl, whose interests lie in movies, parties, swing music, and a new interest in boys. The plot moves quickly to a hectic, whirlwind climax. making it a lively and enjoyable play.

Leading

Seated—Kathryn Reed, secretary-treasurer. Standing—Jacqueline Schmutz, president. Shirley Johnson, vice-president.

Thespians, an organization for high school students, promotes interest in dramatics. This group read and studied plays at their noon meetings. At Christmas time they presented a Christmas comedy play.

A student may earn ten points by being in plays and become a member of this organization.

Athletically inclined were the girls who participated in G. A. A. They were seen Tuesday nights after school working and playing to earn points toward a letter.

These girls played a basketball game between halves at one of the basketball games. They, also, took part in invitational play days.

Dear Shirley
Here's hoping you have a happy future
and a happy home
all through your life. Earl Rogers

Dear Shirley
It's been very nice knowing you. I'll always remember you
as the blue eyed blonde hair girl in economics class.
LeRoy d. Schmidtberger

Dear Shirley,
It sure has been fun
having you in my classes.
I hope you have a swell
time in the coming years.
Best Wishes
Jeanette

Dear Shirley:

All The Best, Always

(teacher?) Paul A. Ehling

Shirley - I can't begin to tell you how much I've enjoyed being in school with you - especially our senior year. I've enjoyed working with you in journalism a lot. Sincerely,

Kenard Black

Hi / Lots of Luck in the future. Your an awfully swell Kid. don't Know You too Much but I always thought You were so sweet and Pretty. Lots of Luck.

Billie Bertram.

Well Shirley We got here and it a hell of a lot of fun but I still rather be a freshmen on you front porch or learning to dance with you I still think I had the best time of my life up there. We want to this room up right so we can remember it the rest of our lives, we always seem to have a good time do's we

Dear Shirley,

It's hard to realize that we are actually going to graduate. High School has been so much fun! I've enjoyed having you as a friend for your are the kind that makes this road through life a little easier. I'm always admired your talent in dramatics and hope you will continue and hope you will continue in this field. I want to congratulate you again on your honor as Hostess! You are well as you could have done as well as you could have done. I hope our friendship will continue through college days.

Best of luck,

"Jackie"

Dear Shirley,

You've been a swell friend this year. Thanks.

Best of luck

"Jackie"

Dear Shirley,

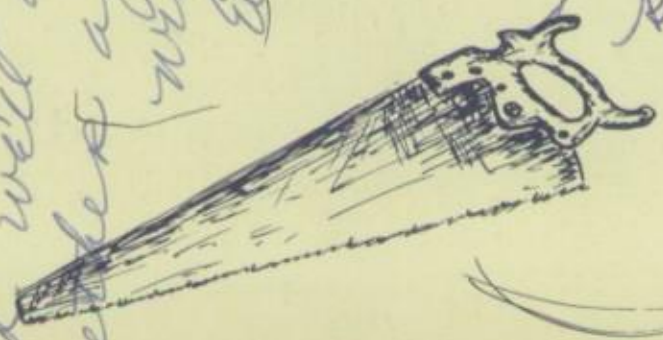
I'm sorry I've made you mad at me. I'm sorry I've made you mad at me. I'm sorry I've made you mad at me.

Dear Shirley,
after all the fun we've had in dramatics, I sure hate to see you go. But wherever you do go, I hope you have the best of luck, for you really deserve it!
Shirley Lauberngayer

Dear Shirley,
I'm sorry we weren't in more classes together. I'll miss you in Math. Keep that sweet smile on your face & you'll go far in life. Remember "Future" is a pleasant word. Look forward to it.
Best of luck always.
Eleanor

Dear Shirley,
I do not know you very well but hope to in the near future. To a swell gal lots of luck
Beverly Avery

Dear Shirley,
It's a shame we aren't in more classes together. Lots of luck in the future.
Mary Virginia



Dear Shirley
I have enjoyed your friendship very much
Esther

Dear Shirley
Luck of luck
Jiff Gunyon

Dear Shirley
I remember the good times we had in gym last year. Good luck to a swell kid.
Bernice

Dear Shirley
I be rest time you drag me to the car, keep me out of the stickers.
Bondi

Dear Shirley
I sincerely wish you lots of luck & to Tommy also Priscilla

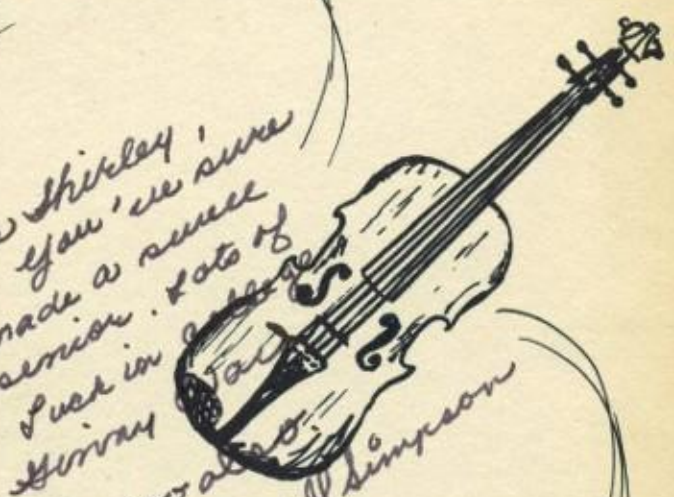
May you gain as much from your college years as you have in Hays Hi.
Best of luck!
miss Hueftle



Dear Shirley,
You've sure made a swell senior. Lots of luck in college.
Sincerely,
Me too also,
Darrell Simpson

Dear Shirley
I'm sure that other people have said things much prettier that would mean less to me.
I certainly enjoyed working with you in the All-School play.
~~Lots of luck 'cause~~
~~we all need it,~~
